

We have chosen the “ready, respectful and safe” as our school rules. These values support us all in ensuring our behaviour in school is a high standard.

We talk about “ready” when we are in the classroom, preparing to learn. We talk about being “respectful” when we build good relationships with each other.

We think about being “safe” both inside and outside school. It is especially important to consider everyone’s safety on the playground.